The Luce County Road Commission is undergoing a paving project known as the County Road 407 & County Road 410 Project in Luce County. This project is an eastern extension of the H58 Reconstruction Project that improved connection from Munising to Grand Marais that was completed in 2008, and increased visitor traffic to Pictured Rocks National Lakeshore. The paving of these roads will enhance connectivity, promote economic growth, and improve public safety for residents and guests of the Upper Peninsula. This project is especially important for the village of Newberry, which boasts an array of amenities and attractions that will make it a natural choice for travelers and visitors headed to Pictured Rocks. Improvements to this public infrastructure will benefit residents from other regions across the state who visit the Upper Peninsula by providing them with more direct and navigable routes to important destinations.
