The School Success Partnership Program serves school-aged youth in Northern Michigan from Pre-Kindergarten through 12th grade who are at-risk for academic failure. School Success began approximately three decades ago in response to community awareness that school failure was a complex, multi-faceted issue linked to chronic poverty, unemployment, juvenile delinquency, domestic violence, teen pregnancy, child abuse and neglect, and a lack of parent education. The program started in Alpena County and has now expanded to 10 counties across the northern lower peninsula. The program has been funded in the state budget for over a decade, with the last increase added several years ago to reflect the expansion of the program to other districts. Currently Sec. 450 of the DHHS Budget
