A culvert beneath the parking lot of Wexford Jewelers in Cadillac is quickly deteriorating due to its age. Residents and local businesses are increasingly concerned that it could collapse at any time, potentially leading to severe flooding and damage to nearby homes, shops, Business 131 and a nearby school. The State of Michigan is the only authority with jurisdiction to repair the culvert, as it drains into the Clam River. Following the lead of my colleague, State Senator Michele Hoytenga, I urge the Michigan Legislature to fund the repair of this culvert before irrevocable damage occurs.
