This project entails constructing a carport for Springfield law enforcement vehicles. Currently, the City of Springfield's law enforcement patrol vehicles are parked outside and exposed to all of the weather elements of Michigan's winters, summers, and everything in between. A carport would also increase vehicle longevity by reducing maintenance on tires, windshield wipers, batteries, interior components, and in vehicle electronics. Call response times can also be reduced by keeping the vehicles cleared of snow and rain and keeping the interior temperature of the vehicle more stable.

This project does not violate Article 4 Section 30 as it is going to a city and being used for local services.

Attached is the budgetary number for the Car Port and Concrete work. We would probably bring in Driven Design out of Battle Creek to draw something up for this. I think his fee for smaller projects like this one is usually about $7,500-$10,000.
